Responsibilities of Membership

- 1. San Diego Archers are responsible for and are expected to assist in the maintenance of both the field range in Balboa Park and the target range at Morley Field by attending the monthly work parties.
2. Members should attend all club meetings.
3. Members must cooperate with and assist club officers in planning club activities and implementing these activities.
4. Members must assist in the promotion of archery and should conduct themselves according to the code of sportsmanship at all times.
5. Members are required to observe all archery safety rules. No blunts or broad-head arrows are allowed at either range. They must see to it that guests and visitors on the range also observe these safety rules and practices.
6. While bow-hunting, members are required to conduct themselves according to all state hunting regulations, cooperating with game officials, practicing conservation and, in general, bringing credit to the San Diego Archers.

I have read the above and will abide by all the club regulations and will fulfill my club responsibilities to the best of my abilities.
